

Office Use Only
-----------------

Name: _____ Social Security # _____

Transcript Review Worksheet

Endorsement # 9-09 Family and Consumer Sciences

Instructional Level: Grades 5-12

The holder is authorized to teach Family and Consumer Sciences in grades 5 – 12.

In order to qualify for this endorsement, the candidate shall demonstrate the following:

Content Topic	College/ University	Course Number	# of Credits	Course Title
Personal development, life planning, and career exploration skills and strategies
Principles of food science, food safety, food technology, and nutrition, and their relationship to growth, development, health, and wellness
Principles and practices of consumer resource management, with emphasis on consumer financial literacy
Changing roles and needs of individuals in the context of relationships with others and within the family system
Factors influencing the well being of families and interpersonal relationships including economic, environmental, gender, sexuality, and legal issues
Human growth and development, with emphasis on early childhood development; parent/guardian roles and responsibilities
Historical, cultural, social, and technological factors influencing residential housing and interiors; considerations in selecting housing and interiors, including individual/family income, interests, needs and values; elements and principles of design; planning interior space design
Historical, cultural, social, and other factors influencing fashion trends and individual apparel needs; clothing and textile characteristics, design, construction, and maintenance				